LOCAL NOTICES.

For REST.—A No. 1 Stable and Carriage House. Apply to A. R. Peony.

The settlement of your account is now needed. Please call and settle at once by cash or note. McRoberts & Stagg.

J. H. & S. H. SHAWES have just received a splendid new lot of Ladies' and Children's Shoes, made by Ziegler, Bros., and are authorized to warrant every pair.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE TO FASHIONABLE'S POPULAR MONTHLY.

The monthly—of this very excellent magazine is an unusually attractive one in its literary and artistic departments.

A new serial story of deep interest, entitled "Not Guilty," by Ethel W. Pierce, is begun and those who are following the chapter will see the result of the author's skill in writing.

The leading article, "Borrowed and Discovered," at No. 8, is by Capt. Barrett, of the U. S. Navy, is replete with information and exceedingly interesting. "The Negro Exodus from the Gulf States," by Fred Douglass; "Dwelling House Reform," by Gen. Hayes; "The Slave Trade," "Tallahassee," and on "Truth" Dr. W. D. will not fail to attract considerable notice. The department of fiction is very attractive. There are poems by Nellie E. Hastings, Rev. M. G. Watkins, A. A. Watts, etc. There are 128 pages, with about 100 illustrations, together with a beautiful colored frontispiece, entitled "Material Soliloquy." The annual subscription is $3; single copies, 25 cents, postpaid. Address, Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 33, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

Day, New Haven; Wm. H. Allard, Mrs. J. Hill, Adams Carpenter, Middleburg; Mrs. R. W. Thompson, Carrollton, Ky.; Mrs. G. C. Overstreet, Williamson, Ky.; O. Terrell, Woodlawnville, Mo.

ENTERTAINMENT AT STANFORD.—Yesterday Mr. J. N. Davis and his family entertained their friends most royally at Clark's Hotel. They gave their annual New Year's dinner to a select company of over sixty guests. Among those present were: Miss Evans, Miss Jean Dickerson, Miss Bettie Lewis, Miss Abbie, the charming Miss Jessie Buchanan, Mrs. Tarrant and family, Mrs. and Mr. Burch, Mrs. S. A. Higgins, Mrs. Dickerson, Mrs. and Mr. W. C. McNaul, Mrs. Mrs. Proctor, Mrs. Minot, Miss. Mrs. G. C. Carpenter, W. G. Welch and others. Here, with the light of heaven in her eyes and on her cheeks, waited the hostess.

LOCAL MATTERS.

THERE WAS A "HOP" at the St. Asaph last night.

COMMON PLEAS COURT will convene next Monday with a docket of 146 cases.

CONCERT.—The intermediate concert at the College will be held on the night of the same hour.

—Our Mr. Vernon letter reads like a blood and thunder tea cent novel. It tells of two murders besides other bloody scenes in and near the county of Rockcastle.

BURGERS.—I have but three left of a car load of buggies received by me recently. They will be sold next Monday, (County Court day.) Come to town and secure a bargain. J. R. Dennis.

FOUND PARTY.—The young people had a small party in the room occupied by Mrs. L. Beasley as a dressmaking establishment, on Monday night, which was a very nice and pleasant affair. A number of older persons took advantage of the occasion and seemed to enjoy themselves as much as the children.

ENTERTAINMENT.—Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Elkin and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Embry, who gave a delightful reception for their uncle, Mr. Gerrard Elkin, on Tuesday night. Quite a large assemblage of relatives and friends were present, and Miss Elsie, daughter of the host, entertained in a charming manner. The supper was particularly elegant, and the dancing was well enjoyed until late hour.

DISHAPPOINTED.—A spruce widower went to see the wifey of a lady living a few miles in the country, and gained her consent to become his wife on a fine day. He presented his license and went to claim her for his own, when she informed him that his wife "she could never, never be." It is said that she had gotten hold of a little of his unwritten history, which caused her to make such a sudden change in her calculations.

BROKEN PLATES.—We have been pleased to notice, since the holidays began, that a number of those who a short time ago, were so earnest in the cause of Temperance as to make clowns of themselves by attempting to operate, have sadly forgotten themselves and looked more than once on the wine when it was red. We hope, however, that they will remember their solemn pledges as well as think of how ridiculous they appear to those who have watched their antics, and go and sin no more, at least not during 1880.

H. C. WARREN.—We have the pleasure this week of formally announcing our friend and countryman, R. C. Warren, Esq., as a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney of this district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

—MISS BELLE HUFFMAN, of Lancaster, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

—Mrs. MOLLIE COOK and Bettie Drye are visiting Misses Adele and May Brown.

—Miss MARY E. and Mrs. A. W. Wilson, of Louisville, are here.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

—The heaviest steer ever left this country was shipped by Col. Walter Handly. It weighed 2,660 pounds and sold at $6. [Jesoline.]

—Gen. Phil Sheridan purchased of J. G. Trimble and Watt Gay, of Clark, a pair of carriage horses for $1,200. They were shipped to his headquarters in Leavenworth, Kansas.

—W. D. Sutherland, of Clark, bought of James Hodges, of same county, a pair of mare mules, over 15 hands high, 5 and 6 years old and said to be the finest pair in the country, for $25.

—LOUISVILLE.—Good to extra shipping cattle are in demand at 45 cents. The supply is equal to the demand in the other grades at 35 to 40; best butchers thin to good, 14 to 31; feeders, 21 to 34. Hogs are active and firm at $4.50 to $4.00 for choice, and $4.40 to $4.50 for fair; shotes, $3 to $3.50. Good shipping sheep are demand at 45 to 5 cents; common, 25 to 35.

LINCOLN COUNTY.

—A happy New Year to the INTERIOR JOURNAL and staff.

—Misses Moody and Katie Smith, and James House were taking a buggy ride a few days ago and while crossing Hawkings Branch, the buggy was upset and threw them into the water. While Jim was getting the ladies out of the water, the horse tore the buggy to pieces.

—FERNALD.—Misses Alice Cash, Katie Blain and Nora Murphy, of Stanford, were the guests of Mrs. R. B. Rice, this week.... Miss Bettie Dennis is visiting Miss Carrie Harlan.... Miss Sallie Huffman and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Elkin, of Elkin, spent a few days with Miss Clark Elkin, this week.

—ANOTHER RUMBLE.—Mr. Tim W. Higgins is announced in this issue as a candidate for Circuit Clerk of Lincoln county. He comes in the field a little late, but he is an energetic young man, and has full confidence in his ability to catch up with those who have had several months the start of him. He is a fine business man of irreproachable character, deservedly popular, and will fill the office with credit, if elected.

—GRANGE.—ATTENTION.—The members of Stanford Grange No. 173, are requested to meet with Mr. Jas. G. Carter, Secretary of the State Grange, at the regular place of meeting here, on Wednesday, Jan. 10th, at 2 p.m. A full attendance is earnestly requested.
